

“Real(ism) Imagined” featuring the work of Carsten, Moses, O’Brien and Torva is on view through June 22 at Fearless Art Works in Carefree

The community is invited to a conversation with the artists on Monday June 19 from 6-7:30 p.m.

CAREFREE, Ariz. (June 1, 2017) – Fearless Art Works is pleased to announce "Real(ism) Imagined" featuring the work of Cyndy Carstens, Cindy Moses, Pat O'Brien and Lucreita Torva.

The opening reception for “Real(ism) Imagined” takes place on Thursday, June 1 from 6 p.m. to 9 p.m. and a conversation with the artists take place on June 19 from 6 p.m. - 7:30 p.m. at Fearless Art Works at Spanish Village located at 7211 E Ho Rd. #17, Carefree, AZ 85337. Admission is free and no RSVP is required.

The four seasoned artists collectively create a unique perspective on imaging the real.

Carstens' combination of realism, impressionism and the abstract, invites the viewer to explore nature while reflecting on our transient existence and place within the larger scope of earth, universe, and the ever after.

Moses captures familiar moments in our day-to-day world. She is fascinated by the way in which we interact with one another that is often bypassed, overlooked, or unnoticed. By preserving these images, the viewer is reminded there is life occurring all around us that is often missed.

O'Brien's work captures a moment in time as if caught in a time capsule. She invites the viewer to ask what stories her subjects could tell. Recently, she has been focusing on the little town of Lowell, AZ that for her, feels frozen in time. O'Brien’s work revisits elements of history and design.

Torva has always created realistic art, sometimes more surreal, other times more straightforward. She has a desire to prompt people to look at their own environment with more care and attention, challenging them to really SEE and experience it. She feels that we experience our world through our senses and that being sensually attuned brings us to a greater spiritual awareness.

FEARLESS ART WORKS is a new Art Gallery and a space for good works of all kinds whose purpose is to Connect Art + Business + Community. SPANISH VILLAGE is one of the most picturesque and historic landmark properties in Carefree with a unique history and identity that has maintained its appeal and deep local loyalty for decades.

Event Calendar is available online at <https://fearlessartworks.com/events>

Media Contact: Michelle Micalizzi
(480) 526-2609
michelle@fearlessartworks.com